

66WESTfest this Saturday Features Fun for the Entire Family

04.09.2014

66WESTfest featuring area artists, two internationally-known music groups, local musicians, food, games and entertainment for the whole family will take place this Saturday, April 12, at the new Pioneer Cellular Event Center on the SWOSU Weatherford campus.

The Weatherford Arts Council is sponsoring the first-time event that begins at 11 a.m. and runs until 9 p.m.

66WESTfest will feature free concerts by two Grammy Award-winning groups: Sugar Free AllStars (12 noon – 1 p.m.) and Brave Combo (7 – 9 p.m.). Both play music that the whole family can enjoy.

There will also be local music groups performing all day. For more information about 66WESTfest, including links to information about the two featured musical acts, please visit the website at <http://www.66westfest.org>.
